SHOWING THEM A THING OR TWO. Whitney Tower describes 50th running of Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp where Paul Mellon's Mill Reef (p.), ridden by British jockey Geoff Lewis, wins in record time of 2:28.3. Mill Reef is first American-bred horse to achieve victory in French classic. HORSE RAC 11 O 81-82

MUD FLIES ALL OVER THE TRACK. Robert H. Boyle details thoroughbred racing scandal centered on multi-aliased Bob Presti (p.) whose dealings with owners Ralph C. Wilson Jr. (p.) and Frank J. Caldwell, trainers John Campo and George Poole are minimized by latter despite contrary evidence; describes investigation and slap-on-the-wrist penalties issued by New York State Racing Commission. 1 N 30-31

JOCKEY R.J. (BOBBY) MARTIN rides first winner in 14 years as 3-to-1 shot Soda Pop takes race at Laurel Race course. Martin retired in 1957, returned to saddle in September and has had 28 losses since. PEOPLE 8 N 50

CALL IT THE SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST. Whitney Tower assesses current season as mare Shuvee takes Jockey Club Gold Cup for second straight year and retires as world's alltime money-winning race mare and Chou Croute wins Spinster; forecasts good season for Paul Mellon's Rokeby Stable next year. HORSE RAC 8 N 68

YOU CAN'T BLAME A GIRL FOR TRYING. Whitney Tower recounts 19th running of Garden State Stakes, won by Lucien Laurin-trained Riva Ridge (c.p.) over Roger Laurin-trained filly Numbered Account (c.p.) in duel for top 2-year-old honors; notes controversy over whether filly should have run against colts. 22 N 30-31

HE HAS THEM OVER A BARREL. Whitney Tower profiles world's finest jockey Laffit Pincay (p.) who currently sets records every day he rides after breaking one-year earnings mark and several track-win records this season. Pincay credits success to hard work, desire and agent Vince DeGregory, rides with own style and obeys trainers' orders scrupulously. HORSE RAC 6 D 76, 78

'HEY, I CAN BEAT THOSE GUYS.' Sandy Treadwell reports on Dr. Delano Meriwether's (in race, p.) 6.0 victory over champion runners Mel Pender and Ivory Crockett in 60-yard dash at National Invitational indoor track meet in College Park, Md. A hematologist specializing in leukemia, Meriwether started running last summer after seeing a race on TV. 18 Ja 14-15

BACK IN THE RUNNING. Sheedy & Long photos, Pat Putnam text spotlight miler Jim Ryun (5 c.p., f.c.p.) who starts comeback and restores his confidence by winning mile in 4:04.4 at San Francisco Cow Palace indoor meet. Ryun's future plans, desire for more involvement with fans, recollection of quitting mid-race in Miami 19 months ago discussed. Anne Ryun, c.p. 1 F 10-13

WAIT-LISTED FOR THE PANTHEON. Anita Verschoth profiles Greek pole vaulter Christos Papanicolaou (p.) who became first to vault 18 feet at dual Athens-Belgrade meet in Karaiskakis Stadium near Piraeus last October; reveals Papanicolaou's hope of becoming a Greek hero in next Olympics. TRACK 1 F 46, 49

NO PRACTICE MAKES ALMOST PERFECT. Pat Putnam profiles shotputter Al Feuerbach (p.) who may prove to be a threat to world-record holder Randy Matson (p.) whom he has beaten once. Feuerbach lifts weights and rarely throws shot while practicing, looks forward to future competitions with Matson. 8 F 18-19

CHAMPION OF THE ARMCHAIR ATHLETES. Robert H. Boyle profiles Dr. Delano Meriwether (c.cov., 2 p.), Baltimore hematologist who has compiled an extraordinary record in the 60 at indoor track meets this season despite atrocious starts. Meriwether notes his running attire, reveals he receives pointers from competitors, may run outdoors though medicine always comes first. Sign. p. 22 F 20-25

SHE GETS HER BACK UP. Anita Verschoth profiles Canada's 17-year-old Debbie Brill (p.), first North American woman to jump six feet and world's sixth highest woman jumper; describes Debbie's backward Brill Bend style, similar to Fosbury Flop, and her upbringing near Vancouver. TRACK 22 F 52-53
